Dear Mr. Rosenberg,

In the wake of the second Presidential Conference in Jerusalem I convey my congratulations for your impressive presentation in the "Tomorrow's Industries" exhibition.

Thank you so much for your input and I wish you every success in your future endeavors. May you continue to put Israel's name on the global map of discoveries and innovations that will make our tomorrow a better place.

Sincerely,
